

RIGHT HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN'S MEETING

One of the Finest Addresses
Ever Given in Red Deer

The Rex Theatre was crowded on Wednesday evening last when the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen on the questions of the day, and the address was one of the most powerful, straight-from-the-shoulder talks ever heard in Red Deer. The speaker dealt with his subjects in such a manner that he was easily understood, and he asked that he be checked up if he made any statement that was not true, but not a single statement was objected to, and the meeting was most harmonious in every respect.

The chair was ably filled by Mayor Dr. John Colwell, while on the platform with him were Major General Griestach, Senator for Edmonton, W. J. Blair, ex-M.P., for Province of Alberta, and J. J. McCormick, of Lacombe.

The chairman called on Senator Griestach to address the meeting for a few minutes while Mr. Meighen was answering a phone call. He introduced him as a genuine product of Alberta.

Senator Griestach, in opening his remarks, said he had come to Alberta forty years ago, and he had seen there had been considerable change in Red Deer since that time. In fact, there wasn't an Alberta when he was born, but was known as the Northwest Territory. He thought that in years to come we will be known as a name we did during the great war.

During this period great changes took place, economic changes, which caused prices to soar to a point where it was too high, while everything he had to sell was too low, for the farmers to get any return for their products. He said that he had failed to remedy the conditions for which they had been elected. They looked after themselves, as the people of the Legislature of Alberta were the highest paid in any Legislature in Canada, receiving $2,000 as a seasonal allowance, to evict the farmers were going to do away with, they had not been able to make one single cent for the farmers who were purely economic and world-wide and could not be changed. Progress at Ottawa, he said, could not make it pay in Alberta, and that they were leaving the province, and as prospects of gloom came to shadow over the whole of Canada. The answer to this gloomy outlook is that farmers of this province have to take care of themselves.

25th ANNIVERSARY KNOX CHURCH

For a church in Alberta to pass its 25th milestone with the same preacher at each end of the quarter century is unusual enough to be notable in this new country. Like all new countries the constant changing of the people has been one of the marks of Alberta in the past. When Dr. McQueen came north on the trail in 1887 he found Red Deer at a time when, where service was then being conducted by the Presbyterian student named Nellie, afterwards drowned in Lake Superior, along the shores of which the Knox Church mission work. The progress of the work of the church is seen when it is recalled that at the time the work was within the bounds of the Stroud of Manitoba and all Alberta and parts of B.C. was the territory of Canada. Now there are 14 Synods where there were 1 and 12 Presbyteries in Alberta, all of which are larger than the one out of which they have grown. History is a good medicine for our impatience.

The old timers were out in large numbers both on Sunday and Monday, and Dr. McQueen is always a welcome visitor to Red Deer. The 25-year-old minister was the jolliest one in the hall during supper time, and on Monday night the same was true.

The first session of the provincial W.C.T.U. convention is being held this morning in the Methodist Church, Ottawa, at 10 o'clock.

There will be three meetings Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the women of the congregation gave one of their best suppers on Monday evening and were rewarded by a larger attendance than usual.

The whole anniversary occasion was one of real blessing to the life and work of the congregation, and it goes forward into the new quarter century, grateful to every man and woman who has helped to bring it to this far and expecting that the work thus far will see far greater developments in both church and state. It was most noticeable that those who had the greatest pleasure in this special occasion were those who were the years had put the most into the work. This is one feature of the work that will not change in the period that lies ahead.

The choir and some of their friends, under the direction of Miss Sater, gave splendid service both on Sunday and Monday, and gave good singing which they will give in the coming months.

These classes will include tuition in national and fancy dancing for juveniles and adult ballroom classes. Mrs. MacDonald has returned from New York, where she acquired all the latest dances for the coming season. The juvenile classes will give the younger generation in this district the same advantages that children receive in the larger centers. Dancing is now recognized by educational authorities as one of the most helpful exercises for the growing child, giving poise and grace to the body and developing an alertness in the young mentality.

The Calgary Kitties, who appeared on the grandstand at the Stampede, were students of the MacDonald School of Dancing and Fine Arts. The Calgary Kitties, who toured the Chautauqua circuit during the last summer, were also trained personally by Mrs. MacDonald and this school, which has its headquarters in Calgary, is the largest and most up-to-date in the province of Alberta. Pupils attending these classes not only acquire the art of dancing, but they also receive lessons on deportment and correct behavior, one of the most helpful preparations for their future career. Intending pupils or their parents should communicate at once with Mrs. MacDonald, principal of the MacDonald School of Dancing and Fine Arts. Full particulars of the proposed classes and terms will be forwarded at once and the dates on which they will be held. The classes will be opening in about ten days.

SYLVAN LAKE

On Thursday Rev. W. G. Brown, of Red Deer, assisted by Mr. A. M. Martin, also of Red Deer, addressed a number of people in the Knights of Pythias hall on prohibition. Mr. Soberg was the chairman of the evening and discharged his duties to the satisfaction of all. After the chairman's remarks, he called on Mr. Martin, followed by Mr. Brown whose speech on prohibition was indeed a treat. Mr. Brown is a thorough, forceful speaker, and both Red Deer and the prohibition party should indeed be proud of a man of Mr. Brown's type, who is at his disposal any time and all the time. If you want an argument or advice on the prohibition question, why, just ask Mr. Brown to tea.

A number of local men were called into Red Deer to testify against a man charged with bootlegging. To these men the community owe their thanks, as, if the village is to be kept free from these dirty rats, the town people must stick together and see that they are kept away from Sylvan Lake. Stay with them, boys, and they will soon quit their lawless and dirty work.

It is reported on pretty good authority that Mr. H. Carlson is to return to the Lake and open up a drug store. We need one.

With the C.N.R. stock yards completed the farmers of the district are reminded that ship C.N.R. is helping a Dominion-owned concern.

It is reported that a near West-ten returned to town with a duck. Where did he get it?

The local branch of the Farmers' Live Stock Shipping Association shipped a mixed car of cattle and hogs. Duffield is the shipper.

WHAT IS LOVE?

Let us look into this word love. Love to man may mean several things. It may mean love to his person, which is very different from himself, or it may mean simply pity. Love to God can only mean one thing. God is a character. To love God is to love his character. For instance, God is pure, to be pure in thought and look, to turn away from unwholesome books and conversation, to absorb the moment in which we have not been pure, is to love God.

God is love; and to love men tell private attachments have expanded into a philanthropy which embraces all, at last even the vilest and meanest with compassion—that is to love God. God is true; to be true, to have every form of falsehood, to lie, to be false, true, life—that is to love God. God is infinite; to love the boundless, reaching on from grace to grace, adding charity to faith, and rising upward ever to seek the ideal still above us—and to die with it unattained, aiming insistently to perfect even as the Father is perfect—that is to love God.

HOW TO BECOME A MILLIONAIRE Hamilton Fish, more than sixty years ago, is reported to have told a young man who came to him for information on "how to make a million dollars," that he was unable to answer the question, but that he could give a piece "just as good" and easier of application. The rules were simple, and were three:

1. Save a portion of your income regularly, no matter how small it may be.

2. Never break a promise.

3. Pay the money you owe exactly on the day it is due. That was sage advice from a man of large experience with men and the world. It bears about analysis. Setting by a certain sum, even though but little, begets a habit of thrift, and a habit of saving. Keeping one's promise assures trust and confidence, and without these, success is no more than a pipe dream. Paying debts when due will make it impossible for any one to know you are not worth a million, for all that he would do would be to pay on the due date.

The beauty of this recipe is that it applies not only to the massing of wealth, but applies to the building of character as well, and especially if there be added:

1. Remember that sacrifice and service are more important than silver, and that there can be no real success that is not built on Christian character. Success cannot be spoiled. That spoils failure instead.

WHAT IS A HERO?

The most interesting stories are those that are never told in books or on the stage or the screen. We cannot help wondering sometimes if a part of the intense interest in the life beyond may be found in learning the stories of the lives of the millions of obscure heroes and heroines who have or had any authors to put them into print. We know a number of thrilling incidents in the lives of people we have met, which have never been put between the covers of any magazine, and never been published in the public gaze. And every reader of this item has had some experience that has never been written or pictured, but if it had been it might have made possible one of the "six best sellers," or the biggest film ever made.

What is a hero? Or, who is a hero? The word is becoming degraded by its cheap use. The baseball player who knocks a home-run with the bases full is a "hero." The pugilist who knocks another one down is a "hero." The film actor who jumps off a cliff to make the children have a thrill is a "hero." The man who shoots another to death, someone's honor is a "hero." What is the use of owning and studying a dictionary? And while we are mentioning the word "hero," the same thing is happening to a number of distinguished and dignified words which, in the rough and common usage, are losing their true meaning.

It seems to us like a cowardly thing to strike something that is unable to hit back. It is not heroic.

A REMARKABLE HORSE. A story is told by an English comedian about the man whose wife said: "Who's that Dorothy you were talking about in your sleep?" "That's all right, dear," said he. "Horse I was ten pounds on yesterday. Here's a five to buy a new hat." When he returned from his office, his wife said: "You know that horse you backed yesterday?" "Yes, dear." "Well, it rang up this afternoon."

CAMPAIGN WARMS UP IN SOUTHERN PART OF PROVINCE

Rev. Ben Spence, of Toronto, and Moderatorist President Clash in Debate

Lethbridge, Sept. 27.—The campaign on the liquor question is warming up in the south. Rev. Ben Spence, of Toronto, opening his campaign here for the days last night at a large meeting in Wesley Hall. At Nanton, Friday night, C. P. Conybeare, head of the Moderators, will meet Mr. Spence in a friendly discussion of the issue.

The wets are bringing in Dr. Michael Clark of Red Deer early in October.

Increase the facilities for securing liquor, and the consumption of liquor increases, reduce the facilities and the consumption decreases. This was the basis of argument presented by Mr. Spence for support of Clause "A" in the liquor referendum in Alberta, November 5, in the course of a forceful address. Mr. Spence held that clause "D" could mean only one thing—the return of the bar in some form. He added that a man could get drunk sitting at a table as well as standing at a counter. Clause "A" was progressive, a step toward national and international prohibition.

Clause "D" was reactionary, a step back toward wallowing in the mire of government sale of a poison that tends to blight our homes and our children," Mr. Spence said.

Almost a Furore

The address of Dr. C. P. Conybeare, president of the Moderatorist League of Alberta, came near to creating a furore when in voicing his disapproval of prohibition, he reverted to the old days when he said, prohibition was in force, and yet "Presbyterian elders and wardens of the English churches perjured themselves in order to get liquor to sell." This brought a gasp from different parts of the audience which was well filled, and when Hugh Brown followed, he stated that J. D. Higginbotham, who was on the stand, had asked him to demand from Mr. Conybeare names in connection with his charge. No names were given.

The Quebec System

Dr. Conybeare very vigorously declared that clause "D" meant a return to the bar system.

He said the Moderatorists issued more to the Quebec system, which was essentially a cafe system, than any other, although he admitted that the Quebec Act might have to be altered some.

During the Spence meeting here, the editor of the Calgary Morning Alberta was quoted, the Moderatorists having advertised an editorial in which Mr. Davidson purported to interpret clause "D" as not meaning a return to the bar. A later editorial was read in which the Alberta declared only part of the quoted article had been printed, and that the rest was circulating a half truth. This was used effectively by H. B. Brown, local barrister, one of the speakers.

CUT THRESHING BILLS

(Experimental Farms Note)

In many parts of Western Canada, particularly in the northern areas, one of the best, cheapest and most dependable feed crops is green feed oats, commonly called green feed. The term is often loosely broadened to include any cereal fed out of the bundle, in whatever stage of maturity.

In test at Beaverlodge, Alberta, in 1921-1922, five two-year-old steers were fattened in an open-front shed during a 16-day midwinter feeding period. Except for a daily feed of hay during the final month, their roughage consisted of oat bundles, not all of first-class quality. The meal consumption during the whole period worked out to a daily average of only three pounds per head. On this cheap simple ration the steers gained two pounds each per acre at a feed cost of $5.95 per hundredweight of gain, and constituted part of a car lot which easily topped the Edmonton market in early April. The steers were fed with the bands broken and the meal was scattered over the long uncut straw in the flat mangers. Notwithstanding that the roughage was pretty well limited to what the cattle would clean up, only a moderate amount of bedding was required. This kind of feed is handy to throw out in any kind of weather. It may be used in a bluff in an open field, allowing the animals to distribute their own manure—thus saving another heavy labor item.

For fattening cattle, wintering stores or dairy stock, feeding horses at moderate work and going upon reports from various sources for the feeding of sheep, green oat sheaves can be utilized to great advantage, especially if combined with a good leguminous hay. Even for hogs and poultry, ripe oats in the straw have a limited use.

In the vicinity where this is written the usual charge for threshing oats is five cents a bushel. Extra help, including a board of crew and teams adds another two or three cents a bushel. The grain then calls for a bushel of feed. If the straw is to be moved it is handled much less conveniently than if bound. If the straw is left, it probably leaves a weed-breeding stock-bottom as a legacy to the field. And it is probable that after all the expense has been incurred the threshed grain and straw are no more valuable for certain purposes than the unthreshed bundles would have been. Why pay out hard cash in order to increase the cost of feed twenty or twenty-five percent?

It is not argued by any means that no oats should go through the separator, but it is suggested that in many cases a slice of the threshing bill might be saved by covering the straw with feed wheat for feeding out of the shed to well-selected live stock.

For this purpose a clean crop should usually be chosen unless the resultant manure can be well rotted or confined where the weed seeds will do no harm. Otherwise dirty grain should be threshed, fanned and probably ground, the screenings being burned.

W. D. Albright, Superintendent, Experimental Station, Beaverlodge, Alta.

SEVEN YEARS OF TORTURE

Headaches and Indigestion Ended by "Fruit-a-lives"

The Marvellous Fruit Medicine

Like thousands and thousands of other sufferers, Mr. Albert Varner of Buckingham, P.Q., tried many remedies and went to doctors and specialists; but nothing did him any good.

Finally a friend advised him to try "Fruit-a-lives"—now he is well. As he says in his letter:

"Seven years, I suffered terribly from Headaches and Indigestion. I had bad gas, bitter acid, and I could come up my mouth, often vomiting, and was terribly constipated. I took Fruit-a-lives and this great fruit medicine made me well!"

DR. GANDIER AND CHURCH UNION

To the Editor of The News.

Dear Sir:—Principal Gandier, as Moderator of Assembly, has published broadcast an official message to Presbyterians, telling them that "the question of Church Union is now finally settled," and calling upon them to rally in support of the Mission Funds, telling them, in other words, that their Church is to be scrapped, wiped out for ever, and that they themselves, with all their rights in that church, are to be handed over by civil law to a new church which has been prepared for them—that they may as well accept the situation and pay out their money for that new church as to hold of whenever it gets the power. The chief feature of Dr. Gandier's letter is its complete absence of fact.

I. Dr. Gandier states that "Church Union is now finally settled," when the action of himself and his fellow co-ordinators, in asking Parliament to settle it, shows it is not settled, and that he knows it is not settled. His letter is simply an effort to keep the people quiet until he has got his hand and foot by Act of Parliament. The world may well be thankful that Presbyterians in history have never kept quiet in the face of injustice, intolerance and wrong, and Canada Parliament has too much regard for honor, truth and right, to be made the tool of such wrong.

2. Dr. Gandier states that "the whole procedure in re 'Church Union' has been in accordance with the constitution of the Church," when the statement is absolutely untrue. The Church has no Constitutional provision for its own disbanding.

Dr. Gandier cannot point out one single provision in its Constitution for such a thing. The Presbyterian Church was never intended to disband so long as there are people who wish to carry it on. All its Constitutional steps are for its own continuance, and every minister and elder on taking office under that Constitution, is pledged to that continuance.

3. Dr. Gandier places upon those who seek to maintain their religious liberty "the onus of disrupting the Church." This recalls Zoroaster's fable of the wolf and the lamb drinking together, the wolf upstream. Seeking an excuse for corruption, he fouled the water and cried out "What do you mean by fouling the water that I am drinking?" "How can I foul the water, when the water is flowing from you to me?" was the reply. "Well, you are no business there anyway," said the wolf, as he "Consummated Union." It is Dr. Gandier and his fellow co-ordinators who are disrupting the Church and ruining her work. If they wish a new Church, let them quietly go to it; none will object or oppose.

4. Dr. Gandier completely ignores the greatest fact, the supreme fact, of this whole question, that is, the people. He does not even refer to them in his letter. To him the people are nothing, nobody, nowhere. They are not even worth the mentioning. He is content to refrain to "The Church has spoken"—"The Church has decided"—that is, the Assembly has decided. This is the Roman Catholic doctrine of the Church. She teaches that her clergy are the Church by divine right, and that the people of the Reformation, in world wide Presbyterianism, the people are the Church. But in the great majority of the people to serve the Church within clearly defined limits, and pledged to maintain and defend that Church within those limits.

Dr. Gandier ignores the people. He does not mention that only one-third of them voted for "Union," and that many of the one-third were in missions, supported by the church, including Chinese and other aliens, and numbers of Canadians who had never seen really Presbyterianism.

On the other hand, the self-supporting mission-supporting churches in more than two hundred of the largest cities of the world, such as Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London, etc., the main strength of the Church, gave a combined total majority against "Union." Dr. Gandier does not tell when the vote was taken it was on the distinct pledge that "Union" would not be pressed upon them there were "typically un-American action" of the people. He does not tell that when the people voted they had no hint of the "Iniquitous" Church Union Bill, upon which they have never had an opportunity of giving their judgment. Never, since the people of a Church treated with great contempt than in these "Union" proceedings. After twice seeing their judgment by vote at a cost of thousands of dollars, which the people had to pay, and then ignoring their greatly increased opposition, the Moderator does not even mention them.

Christians of Canada, of every name, this is your concern to oppose in Parliament. It is a question of religious liberty versus clerical despotism. If this should succeed, your turn may be next to have your Church, whether Catholic or Protestant, scrapped by Act of Parliament. Stand fast, men and women, for freedom, truth and right in all our broad land, and freedom, truth and right will triumph.

Canadian National Building at the British Empire Exhibition

An imposing building is to be erected by the Canadian National Railways at the British Empire Exhibition. Contracts have been placed and the construction will be commenced immediately. The building is of a classic style of architecture of the Canadian Government building at the Exhibition. The Canadian National building is on a site immediately next to the Canadian Government building and in one of the most prominent sections of the exhibition grounds. The building is 90 ft. x 110 ft. and in addition to a very comprehensive display of exhibits, including agriculture, horticulture, mining, industrial and tourist features, there will be a cinematograph hall accommodating 250 people, in which daily films will be given, where films that are being specially made this year will be projected, depicting the attractions of Canada. This building will be one of the handsomest structures in the group of the buildings at the British Empire Exhibition. The architect is Mr. Eustache G. Bird, A.R.I.B.A., of Toronto, Canada.

The accompanying map shows the Canadian Pacific Railway System in Saskatchewan and the branch lines in that Province now under construction, the latter being designated by the dotted lines. In order to facilitate the movement of the crop this fall adjacent to the new lines it has been arranged that the construction department will operate trains on these lines as follows, contingent on labor supply and delivery of seed:

Consul entirely, 60 miles; Leader southwest, 25 miles; Milden to end of Rosetown south, 79; Naicam to Melfort, 32 miles; Tulewell—Prince Albert, 50 miles; Wymark—Archives, 35 miles.

Operation of the Cukinik—Battle River line, 40 miles, and the second section of the line from Leader southwest, 25 miles, will depend entirely on whether track material can be delivered in time to get steel laid.

(a) PROHIBITION—Meaning thereby a continuance and development of the present liquor legislation; that is, meaning the abolition of the sale of all liquors excepting for strictly medicinal, sacramental, manufacturing and scientific purposes.

(b) LICENSED SALE OF BEER—Meaning thereby the sale of beer in licensed hotels and other premises as provided in the proposed Temperance Act.

3

(c) GOVERNMENT SALE OF BEER—Meaning thereby the sale of beer by or through government vendors for consumption in private residences under government control and regulation, other liquors to be sold through doctors' prescription for medicinal purposes.

1

(d) GOVERNMENT SALE OF ALL LIQUORS—Meaning thereby the sale of all liquors by or through government vendors, beer to be consumed on licensed premises and in private residences; wines and spirits to be purchased in limited quantities under permit issued by the government, under government control and regulation.

DO NOT MARK YOUR CHOICE ON THIS BALLOT WITH AN "X." If you do, your ballot will not be counted.

VOTE "1" FOR CLAUSE "D"—Government Sale and Control of All Liquor.

VOTE "2" FOR "B" if it approves of the sale of beer on licensed premises under government control.

VOTE "3" FOR "C" if it approves of the sale of beer for beverage purposes.

Your vote will seriously affect conditions in Alberta; it will restore respect for law and order, and reduce expenses of law administration.

If "A" carries it will increase taxation to support lost pigeons and the profits from the sale of liquor for beverage purposes will continue to enrich the BOOT-LEGGING FRATERNITY.

DR. PRICE

We have been asked why we have not had more to say about Dr. Price. Dr. Price is either doing God's work or the work of the devil.

If, as we believe, he is doing God's work, he does not need words of praise from us.

Christ, when on earth, said if we had faith as a grain of mustard seed—and He said that because the mustard seed is one of the smallest of all seeds—we could remove mountains.

Dr. Price seems to have based all his services on faith.

The thousands who crowded his meetings, looking for light, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last, from all parts of the country, until there was not room in the big church, cannot but be impressed with his sincerity.

God's Ministers, whom we look up to and respect, in the persons of Rev. Mr. Brown, Rev. Mr. Churchill, and Rev. Mr. Olsen, assisted in the meetings.

These men are our living witnesses of the good work being done by Dr. Price.

We believe that the time is approaching when we will again experience the wonderful works manifested by the Apostles in laying on of hands.

We believe Dr. Price has seen a ray of light which has penetrated the gloom and darkness surrounding us of death and hell, and if that is the case, we hope the Almighty will strengthen him and help him in his good work.

THE UNITED STATES

MERCHANT MARINE

There was once a king of France to whom his ministers submitted proposals for the improvement of the French navy, after it had suffered divers defeats at the hands of the British. The king listened and then said: "Yes, these proposals are all very well but France will never have a navy."

It almost seems as if the United States will never have a merchant marine. They had a magnificent chance at the close of the war. Most of the maritime nations of the world, especially Great Britain, has lost heavily through the action of German submarines. America was in the best position of any nation to foster foreign trade in her own ships. Yet in the few years that have elapsed since the war the prospect of a supreme American merchant marine has entirely faded. Large numbers of the ships so hastily built during the war have been laid up uselessly in harbour until they have become unfit for service. Others have been sold to foreign nations. The British merchant marine is again beyond question the greatest in the world. It looks as if the modern American has not got the knack of owning and managing ships profitably, while the modern American is not inclined to go to sea for his livelihood. Perhaps this is not surprising in view of the opportunities which he enjoys of earning a good livelihood on shore in his own country. The life of a seaman has never been and is not now, in spite of all modern improvements, a luxurious or easy one. Probably only constant proximity to the sea and familiarity with its commerce such as exists around the British Isles create the esprit which in turn creates the merchant marine. The Ship Subsidy Bill, designed to protect and foster the American coastwise shipping, has not received the approval of Congress. The vagaries of the American politician have not added to the popularity and paying qualities of American ships. Recently the attitude of American shipowners on the Great Lakes, in which we commented in our editorial notes, has seemed unaccountably designed to diminish the American share in the carrying of do worse than give heed in this respect to the ideas of other times and other heads.

AMERICA AND THE PHILIPPINES

Since the United States annexed the Philippine Islands at the close of her war with Spain, 25 years ago, she has not found the task of liberator and guardian an easy or pleasant one. She has had to put up with a lot of more or less serious and when these were finished with, she has had to face and is now facing a political agitation for independence, the chief feature of which is the utter ingratitude of the native Philippines for all that has been done for them by the States. How much has been done is not very widely known in Canada, but it is a highly creditable record from the standpoint of the States.

The stagnant tyranny of Spain has been removed and a progressive and humane policy of civilization introduced, marked by the building of roads and railways, setting up of schools, modern methods of sanitation and medicine, honest administration of justice in so far as the natives will permit it. At the present time one of the most distinguished living Americans, General Leonard Wood, is governor of the Philippines. A few years ago he was entrusted by the United States government with the task of enquiring into the general state of matters in the Philippine Islands with a view to determine how far the native claim for self-government was justified. His report was adverse and severely adverse. He pointed out the lack of capacity or honesty in such parts of the administration as had been entrusted to natives, and the gist of his opinion was that far from being entitled to certain measures of self-government, the natives had already given more than they were fit for. Naturally this honest and courageous report earned him the bitter hatred of the Philippine politicians, and since his appointment as governor they have done their utmost to embarrass and injure him in the eyes of the United States home authorities.

This experience of the United States is instructive as showing the foolishness and folly of the attitude sometimes made by ignorant and obviously foolish people on the British administration of those parts of her Empire which have large native populations. Britain has been pictured as the cruel tyrant power and her officials as merciless despots, the poor innocent natives beneath an iron rule of feudal despotism. Yet when the United States, that fabled land of freedom, democracy and modernity, takes over the government of a backward people, and gives to them a government far better than they have ever had in their history, the only result is that the American government and officials are regarded by the natives with hostility and malign ingratitude.

It is this attitude of the down-trodden native was exploded. There is not a place where the British Empire holds sway—and the same applies to the territories of the United States—which is not the better for that sway, where the natives have more of peace and prosperity by far than they ever enjoyed under the rule of their own chiefs, who were in reality infinitely more cruel, bloodthirsty and tyrannical than the British or American governments are now accused of being. The clamour for self-government is almost entirely the clamour of small numbers of superficially-educated natives, who wish to get a free hand to oppress their fellow-natives, and to undo the impartial justice of the English-speaking rulers. The only result of giving way to such clamour would be that the countries would more or less rapidly sink back into the chaos of savagery from which they have been rescued, and the burden of the world would fall, as usual, on the poor and defenceless masses of the people. It may be that the clamour will in varying degrees succeed with time. There are signs that the white man is getting tired of carrying a burden of responsibility which brings him only abuse, and is inclined to leave the native races to convert their own nations into any such political lunatic asylum as they may desire. When the process of conversion is complete, the likelihood is that the helpless masses will look back with vain longing to the golden days when the tyrant white men gave them the peace and justice they have now lost.

EDITORIAL NOTES

We would like to know why the price of gas stays up at the high levels. We know that the local vendors of the precious liquid are not to blame. Surely the whole of Canada is not being used by the big corporations as a place to make their profits while they run the small companies out of business in the States.

We must now use revenue stamps on cheques and notes and receipts and overprints and bills. And we will not be punished with such a thing if we use a postage stamp. It is just another straw added to the load. We don't want to pay for a thing we can do that is not governed by some law, Dominion, Provincial or Municipal. The revenue officials must be appointed and paid at each new law passed. And in the end we will have to pay for the law passed and enforced that we do not want. The whole country is in the same state as the olden days of the Chetumpal, butler, who would more than make up for the loss of his position to get more money to buy more, etc., etc.

The Calgary Herald prints a picture of the Prince of Wales, which it states was taken after the presentation of the Calgary Stampede Trophy to the Prince of Wales. It refers to the latter four-flasher as the world's champion lunking horse rider. Evidently the Herald is not a very good judge of horses. It is a pity that the Prince of Wales was not a better judge of horses. Or that on every occasion that he has started since the Calgary Stampede he has lost except at Canastota.

We raise more taxes to pay more men to pass more laws to raise more taxes to pay more men.

During the recent strike of printers in New York, it was found that on the first day of the strike sales in the stores fell off 10%. The second day they fell off 30%. The reason could be absolutely no other than that the stores had no more to sell. And yet people ask "Does it pay to advertise?"

Predictions that the crop would be the biggest except for 1913 are proving to be wrong as the season advances. The crop is proving far bigger than that of 1915. Over the province as a whole we are getting three crops in one year, or nearly so. Last year the wheat crop was 65 million bushels. This year it is over 150 million. And the results are already being felt in many lines of business. Every farmer is pressing for granary room and new granaries are being built by hundreds. Before Christmas, we predict that the influence of the great harvest will be felt in every line of business.

SLAUGHTERING PULPWOOD

United States pulp and paper interests are being assisted in keeping up their profits and saving their own timber supplies at the cost of the Canadian voter and taxpayer.

Canada's forests are either burning, being destroyed by insect pests or slaughtered by United States interests while the government now in power endeavors to quiet the people with a Royal Pulpwood Commission to go out and discover facts long since established.

The present party responsible for the protection of Canadian interests is forcing the taxpayer to pay the cost of providing, in the Pulpwood Commission, an official excuse for delaying urgently needed action.

The Liberal Government are today raising the curses of unborn generations of Canadians whose birthright is being sold to make United States citizens rich.

The foundations are being laid today for Canadian newspapers in the future being left at the mercy of United States newspaper manufacturers for their daily needs. They will have to buy from the States in a very few years.

Every available man is being hired to cut down the maximum amount of pulpwood and get it out of the country while the Pulpwood Commission's deliberations and meditations hold open the artery through which Canada's life blood is pouring into the United States. We are being sold today by the very people we put in power to protect our interests. In war, traitors are shot. In politics, they are eventually consigned to the wilderness.

Those boys who have absented themselves are warned that continued absence, unless for a sufficient reason, will cause them to lose their membership in the Pack. Second Squad will be taken up vigorously this fall. Sixers are specially required to maintain their efficiency and to instruct the Tenderpaws of their class. It should be noted that no Totem Pole may be carried by Pack until all the members have obtained their Scout Star, but a Pack flag may be carried. All members who endeavor to keep on time. The Sixers should take charge of their sixes until the arrival of the Cubmaster. Boys are requested not to touch any of the artillery equipment in the hall, and to refrain from using the gymnastic apparatus until permission is given to do so.

R. C. LISTER, Cubmaster.

WHERE JOHN BULL GETS HIS BEEF

An abstract of a report by the United States Department of Agriculture records that the British market no longer looks to North America for any reliable supplies of foodstuffs. The Home production in the United Kingdom is a relatively stable proposition. As grain prices go up, land devoted to pasture tend to decrease and home production of beef and mutton to decrease. As grain prices go down more land comes into grass with a consequent increase in beef and mutton production. Neither of these oscillations as they occur will result in a large modification of total supplies. They will, nevertheless, have a profound effect on competitive prices of imported meats. The number of sheep, pigs, and cattle per thousand persons in the United Kingdom has decreased during the last thirty years, as indicated by the following figures:

Year	Cattle	Sheep	Pigs
1891	299	885	112
1901	276	741	81
1911	262	671	81
1921	251	611	77

Argentina furnishes Great Britain nearly 32 percent of its beef. Combining beef and mutton, Argentina provided 35 percent of the total consumption of the United Kingdom in 1921. After Argentina, Australia and New Zealand are the two most important sources of fresh beef and mutton. Australia with a population of 5,346,000 people has 12,397,000 cattle, while New Zealand with a population of 1,237,000 has 3,323,223 cattle, 22,222,222 sheep and 350,000 swine. Meat traders in Great Britain believe that the trend will be for a greater production in Argentina. South Africa, they believe, will show some increase, but not enough to play an important role in the world commerce. Brazil will remain of less importance than its potentialities warrant, chiefly by reason of disease and tropical conditions.

Consumption of beef in the British Isles during 1922 is estimated at 60.83 lbs. a head; mutton and lamb 25.84 lbs.; pork 35.6 lbs. Last year 46.48 percent of the available beef and mutton supplies was imported, of which 2.44 percent was re-exported, leaving 44.04 percent derived from imports, and 55.96 percent from home production. Of the chilled meat, 86.9 percent was from Argentina and 13.1 percent from Uruguay.

A comparison of the trend of supplies of chilled and frozen beef to the United States and Argentina to Great Britain follows:

United States to Argentina to	Argentina to Great Britain
1900-04	300,731,000 lbs. 1,100,553,400 lbs.
1913	163,744 lbs. 803,250,000 lbs.
1918	401,337,485 lbs. 224,000,000 lbs.
1921	10,853,382 lbs. 1,100,553,400 lbs.
1922	887,844,160 lbs.

LONDON'S BIG MEAT TRADE
Meat imports at the port of London alone averaged 1,600 tons a day in 1922. It is expected that 1923 trade will be still greater. The port authority is now completing the equipment of a berth in the East India Docks to give rapid and economic discharge of chilled beef imported mainly from Argentina. But this will not suffice for all requirements, and the authority has decided on the immediate construction of an additional berth at the western end of the Royal Victoria Docks. This berth will be equipped with the most modern mechanical appliances for the rapid discharge of ships and the loading of railway and road vehicles and insulated barges employed in transporting the meat to destination.

PENHOLD

(Crowded out last week)

Sept. 25.
The Venerable Archdeacon Inglis, of Toronto, spent the week end in the district renewing old acquaintances. He was stationed near here for three months, thirty years ago, so was much interested in the growth of the country and in our good crops.

The harvest thanksgiving service in the Anglican church on Sunday was well attended and very hearty. The services were conducted by Archdeacon Inglis, and the sermon was most appropriate. There will be a celebration of Holy Communion on the first Sunday in October at six o'clock.

Hives Bros. have bought a second-hand separator, and both W. J. Douglas and Chris. Quinlan have new separators for the fall threshing.

Mrs. Davis, who is teaching near Oles, spent the week end with her brother, J. H. Baldwin, of Ridge-wood.

Miss E. Storey, provincial secretary of Girls' Work Board, addressed the local C.G.I.T. girls on Saturday and impressed on them the importance of each one doing all in her power to follow the fourfold objects of the C. G. T. namely, "Character, Health, Skill, Truth, Knowledge and Service."

A most enjoyable part of the program was the teaching of several C.G.I.T. songs. The girls served tea at the conclusion of the meeting.

Miss McCullough, of the Bank of Montreal, spent Sunday in Red Deer. About half our members of the institute journeyed to Innisfail for the constituency convention last week and report very pleasant times. H. R. McDougall, of Penhold, was elected constituency convener for 1923.

The Red Cross are preparing for their annual campaign for funds and are preparing a whereby the farmers will be enabled to donate grain through the elevators. Each district where there is a branch is entitled to a share of the funds raised for local work if it is needed.

The "Rebel" Lodge had an enjoyable dance on Friday night, but unfortunately the bad roads prevented the sister lodges of Innisfail and Red Deer from being present.

On Monday, September 24th, Lieut. Col. Taylor, of Winnipeg, gave a very interesting lecture in the hall entitled "Japan." The pictures which were a very superior quality, were made in Japan.

By way of introduction, he took the audience on an imaginary trip by train and boat to Yokohama, the great seaport of Japan. Places of interest were then shown, including the "Hundred Steps" from the lower or native portion to the upper or foreign part. Pictures of Tokio and Japanese social life were shown. Children playing with babies on their backs, tea-time without furniture, street scenes, Japanese gardens, the madonnas, and the leaf-letting proved interesting subjects. Industrial scenes, ploughing, planting and harvesting rice, the cloths, weaving silk, and the wonderful Japanese sculpture, drew intense interest. Pictures of idol worship, temples, and the horrible system of prisoner (now happily being changed) made many a missionary in this as in other lands. After showing some of the strange beauties of Puyama came the concluding words of the "Vale of Tears" and "Charles the Light of the World." A capacity crowd wished that Lieut. Col. Taylor would soon come again.

THE O. S. A. SOON TO OPEN FOR THE TENTH YEAR

Opening of the 1923-24 term of the O.S.A. of Agriculture, at Oles, Alberta, will take place on October 30th. The term closes next spring on March 28th.

The farmers of this district should be well acquainted with the excellent courses in agriculture and domestic science given at the school at Oles. The courses, given free to girls and boys from the farms, over 16 years of age, are of a most practical nature, and calculated to fit the students for their future life on the farm, and for their responsibilities as citizens in their respective communities.

No requirements are asked of the students in entering these courses, save the ability to read and write, and to make use of what they learn. The course is of two years' duration, with terms of five months each, so arranged as to be most convenient for the sons and daughters of farmers. The course in agriculture lays particular emphasis on animal husbandry, field husbandry and farm mechanics, including practical in engineering, blacksmithing and carpentry. There is also instruction in agricultural physics, chemistry, bacteriology, farm management and bookkeeping, mathematics and English. Entomology and botany are also taught.

The two year course in domestic science affords opportunity for the young women of the province to obtain in economic management of the home. Both courses lay the foundation for advanced study if the students wish to take it.

A well equipped dormitory for the women students is maintained under school management, where board and room may be had at $23.00 a month. New students may obtain board and room at $7.00 a week. Those wishing information may obtain it by writing the Principal of the Oles School or the Department of Agriculture at Edmonton.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY SAYING BACKBONE?

"Backbone" is the name of the new distinctive picture, distributed by Goldwyn, which will be shown at the Rex Theatre, Tonight and Thursday.

"Backbone" is one of the most expressive words in the English language. It means bravery, determination, daring, integrity, unconquerable, bold as a lion—all these things and more. To have "Backbone" is to have every quality which makes a man or woman worth while.

That is why the hero and heroine in this marvellously thrilling story triumph over the plotting and cunning of two rather desperate men.
